Decide Championship.

Next Saturday's game between Richmond College and Randolph-Macon promises to be a contest that will furnish enough excitement to please the most critical. These two teams, both putting forth their best efforts to win, are going to decide the championship.

Richmond has a team which so far has played as good football as any team of the same weight in the State, but yesterday's game showed that they will have a difficult task to defeat Randolph-Macon as the latter team is coming along very fast, while they seem to have stopped all forward progress since their fine game against Columbia.

CAROLINA WINS.

Defeats Clemson College by Score of Eleven to Six.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHAPLAIN, N. C., Nov. 14.—Carolina defeated Clemson College yesterday in one of the most hotly-contested games of the season by a score of eleven to six. All the scoring was done in the first half, when Carolina, by the efforts of its players, scored a touchdown and a field goal, while Clemson scored only a touchdown. Carolina's players were: Egan, Donnelly, and Sisson were the stars for Clemson. Carolina men are jubilant over the victory, and are celebrating to-day with a bonfire.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 14.—The game of football this afternoon between St. Albans and the Roanoke Club resulted in a victory for the St. Albans boys 20 to 0.

Very Close Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLANCKSON, Va., Nov. 14.—A very evenly matched game of football was played here to-day between the Petersburg High School team and Hoge Academy, of this place, resulting in neither side being able to score, nor was the goal of either materially threatened at any time.

Two halves of fifteen minutes each were played. At first it looked as though Petersburg would outplay the local team, as at the first kick off by the local team, Petersburg caught the ball and advanced it almost to the center before being blocked.

Hoge Academy's line proved strong, but on end plays and interference the Petersburg team got the ball on downs. The local team felt elated since Petersburg recently defeated Richmond High School.

Victory for Locust Dale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 14.—Locust Dale Academy defeated Fredericksburg College team at football here this afternoon by a score of 12 to 0. The victorious team and party, numbering forty, returned to Orange to-night on a special train.

RICHMOND GAINS ANOTHER VICTORY

Defeated William and Mary After Hard Work by a Decisive Score.

Richmond College defeated William and Mary at Broad Street field yesterday afternoon by the score of 24 to 0, and they had to work hard to do it.

Playing was rough all through, and two good men, one from each team, were forced to retire, with injured ankles.

Spelman was the first to go out. He had just made a fine sprint for gains on a back kick, and was tackled splendidly by a William and Mary man. In going down his ankle was twisted, and in lots of pain, he withdrew, making room for Wight, another good player.

Hardly five minutes had elapsed before Spencer, William and Mary's half back, experienced a similar mishap, and had to retire in favor of Whitney.

Neither team played good team work until the latter part of the last half, when they got together and resistance showed up to better advantage. Penalties were frequent, and it was about a stand-off for both teams. Individual work was better, but that which told was confined to a few plays. Richmond's line did not kick with its usual vigor, and most of the plays are credited to Spelman, Lankford and Smith, each of whom proved powerful.

On the William and Mary side the ends were strong, and very little gains were made through them. The line, as a whole, however, was not impregnable, and as a consequence the backs were handicapped.

Hard work on the part of Richmond and the first half netted one touchdown and goal, made by Spelman and kicked by Smith. In this half Spelman was the star.

In the second half he shared honors with Lankford and Smith. Lankford made the second touchdown, and the score was increased by Smith to 12. A few minutes later, on a punt by William and Mary, Smith got the ball and went through tackle for a clear seventy-five yard sprint for goal. This was the star play of the game, and resulted in a score of 18 to 0. Near the end of the game, Fraser was hurt on the nose and Smith, who had kicked the ball, in a few minutes the last goal was kicked by Smith, after Lankford had gone through for a touchdown, making the score 24 to 0.

The result of this game makes the forthcoming contest between Randolph-Macon and Richmond of greater interest. The former defeated William and Mary by the score of 40 to 0 some time ago, and Richmond's inability to do more than happen yesterday has put Randolph-Macon stock up. The line-up: Richmond: Position. W. and M. Fraser.....right end.....Sincclair.....left tackle.....McDonald.....right guard.....McDonald.....center.....Gentry.....left guard.....Blankenship.....left tackle.....Johnson.....left end.....Billups.....right half back.....Macraeth.....left half back.....Spencer.....full back.....Blackston.....quarter back.....Chapman.....full back.....Umpire, Nelson. Time-keeper, Finnegan. Touchdowns—Spelman, Lankford 2. Smith—3; goals, Smith 4—24.

NATIONAL BEAGLES.

Closing Day of the Pack Trials.

The Rockefeller Cup.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HOWARDSVILLE, Va., Nov. 14.—The National Beagle Club's trials were concluded this afternoon after a week of most excellent sport and glorious weather. A shower of rain before daylight made all the difference in scent, and the dogs were able to do much better work than in any previous year. The four dog pack suker for thirteen-inch beagles was won by the Watlingfield beagles, Charles S. Brooke's pack second, and Whitton beagles third.

The same stake for fifteen-inch dogs was won by Somerset beagles, Round Plain beagles second, Rockbridge beagles third. C. R. Stevenson's reserve. The Rockefeller cup presented to the club by W. G. Rockefeller, fifty per cent. for show form, and fifty per cent. for hunting capabilities, was won by the Watlingfield beagles, hunted by Mr. James D. Appleton.

The George B. Post, Jr., cup donated by Mr. Post for pack of eight beagles, was also won by Mr. Appleton with the same pack. To decision of the judges was in every case most satisfactory.

WESTERN CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Robertson's Address in Interest of Greensboro College.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 14.—The first business before the Western North Carolina Conference to-day was the consideration of the report of the special committee on the superannuated fund. L. W. Crawford read the report, and Bishop Crowl, Dr. Crawford and M. H. Hoyle spoke to this paper, and it was adopted. Nine young men were received into full connection, Bishop Smith addressing to them and the conference some most helpful remarks.

The next session of the conference will be held in Charlotte. Mrs. L. E. Robertson addressed the conference in behalf of Greensboro College. She referred to the recent strain through which the school has passed, and to the efforts of the Alumni Association, which resulted in the saving of this school to North Carolina Methodist.

Municipal Insurance.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir—I read with great interest Clarence S. Darrow's excellent article, "Socialism of the Government," published in your issue of Sunday, November 5, 1933. Some years since I advocated in your columns that all cities should insure against fire all improvements of all kinds within their limits. I have carefully studied this subject and believe the adoption of the plan I proposed would greatly diminish the great loss by fire, and would do good, not only to the public, but to the insurance companies as well. The statistics show that the annual fire loss of this country is enormous, and it is due in large measure to inefficient fire protection, and to fraudulent fires, which are encouraged because the insurance companies upon policies against insurers always as a factor in their favor whenever such a fire occurs. If the public became a co-insurer with the companies, its interest would eliminate the risk of fraudulent fires, and would demand greater efficiency in the fire departments, both to prevent the occurrence of fires and to extinguish such as do occur.

In brief, my plan was this: Buildings and improvements upon real estate are assessed for taxes separately from the ground itself, and usually assessed far below actual value. Whatever the assessment, a fire tax should be laid, graded as to character of the structure and its location, and collected as are other taxes, and the proceeds applied to form a fund to indemnify against loss and to provide for a more efficient fire department. The owner could effect insurance, besides with insurance companies, and in this event the insurance companies, insured with such companies. This would cause real estate owners to have their buildings and improvements assessed at a fair valuation and would ensure a higher degree of public precaution against fires. The city could of course protect itself by reinsuring in the companies, who would have the exclusive field upon all insured buildings, and as to structures themselves would be co-insurers with the city. Every building insured by the city, ever mean, would be insured by the city, without a policy, simply by its existence, and, say, for three-fourths of its assessed value, so that no owner could ever be entirely without insurance from fire, or from lightning, or from other causes. The revenues arising from this fire tax would be kept absolutely apart and devoted exclusively to paying for losses, for better facilities for preventing and fighting fires, for premiums paid for reinsurance, and to accumulate a fund to meet any great loss. By this plan the public and insurance companies become partners with mutual advantage to both, and a consequent lessening of loss by fire and great cheapening of the ever increasing and almost intolerable burden of rates which the insurance companies impose and collect from the prudent public, while the careless and the vicious add to the risk and create many losses which should be avoided.

Of course, in so brief an article I cannot develop my plan as I have worked it out. I prepared a paper and sent it with the report that it was not expedient to publish it, while each one admitted the article was well worth publication. Indeed, a great writer on economics wrote me upon a letter head which named him as president of one of our largest fire companies, suggesting that I had better drop the matter, as it had been tried in Switzerland and proved a failure. My plan has never been tried in Switzerland nor elsewhere, and if Germany can successfully insure its lives, I am sure we can successfully insure our buildings. I presented a carefully drawn bill to our Legislature some years ago, but it was pigeonholed as uncommercial.

I renew the subject by the above suggestion, and invoke to its consideration especially the great insurance companies, and I believe will be fraught with good to the public, to every individual, to every insurance company. Mr. Darrow's article makes me ask space for the above.

Yours truly,
JAMES P. HARRISON.

Ring Presentation.

Two Old Districts WILL BE RESTORED

session of to-day one of unusual interest. The Bishop's remarks on the transfer question provoked a round of laughter. There were also some interesting developments in connection with the report on the Bible course, touching the Bible Society of Virginia.

The proposed negro deaf and dumb institute was endorsed. The Conference adopted a report urging a canvass of education for the use of the Bible in the public schools.

The Morning Session.

The conference of the fourth day assembled rather slowly. "The Holy Ghost," was delivered by Bishop Hendrix.

Rev. Boyd Ellyson Hudson was elected to deacon's office. Under question 3 the Rev. W. B. Anderson was discontinued. An amusing incident occurred at this point. The chair called question 5: "Who are received by transfer from other conferences?" and responded the name of the Rev. Aubrey C. Kelley, D. D., of the Tennessee conference. "I don't know how many others I have kept from coming," said the bishop with a smile, as he recalled yesterday's resolutions. "I wish I could transfer about a dozen of you out. I think I have kept you. If any brother wants to meet my ear privately on this subject I shall be gratified."

The report on the Christian Advocate was presented, read and discussed. As soon as the report was read Dr. J. Powell Gayland, chairman of the committee, made a statement as to its work. His commendation, however, did not represent the original opinions of the members of the committee, any one of whom was at liberty to offer a substitute.

Rev. James Cannon, Jr., of Blackstone, explained his position in the matter, and brought out the fact that nearly every other conference owned its paper and wanted to know why this could not be the case here. He suggested the formation of a new joint stock company, which shall conduct the paper, allowing the control of the columns to the conference.

How to Secure Trial Treatment.

Write me and simply ask for the book you need. A postal will do, or sign the coupon. Then I will arrange with a druggist near you, so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative to make the test. Send me no money. You deal with your druggist, remember. Use the Restorative a full month—then decide. If it succeeds the cost to you is $5.50; if it fails I will have the druggist bill the cost to me. Could anything be more fair? To delay means to forget. Write now, while you have it in mind. This is important.

TWO OLD DISTRICTS WILL BE RESTORED

Matters of great moment were considered and acted upon at a meeting of the Board of Education held in the late afternoon. A resolution calling upon the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon to give the patronizing conferences some voice in the election of the trustees was adopted by a large majority. There was also a resolution to the effect that the conference on Monday a resolution, appointing the Executive Committee to call a conference of the Christian educators of Virginia for the purpose of considering the important educational problems before the State, and of securing some concert of action toward carrying on the work. Such problems as the Bible in the public schools, morals in the public schools, the extent to which the State and the church should go in for secondary education, and so forth, will be discussed.

The Committee on Temperance will report a resolution rejoicing in the success of the Mann bill, and calling upon the Legislature to eliminate the saloon, club and distillery feature. It will also recommend the appointment of a committee, composed of Dr. W. W. Lear, Rev. Jas. Cannon, Rev. W. B. Beauchamp and Rev. R. H. Bonner, to appear before the Legislature in reference to the matter.

At the conference church to-night Dr. C. W. Kent, of the University, delivered a splendid address before the post-graduate class. The meeting was a public one and the attendance was very large.

MR. WILLIS CHOSEN.

He Will Represent Richmond College Against Wake Forest.

The Mu Sigma Rho Society of the Richmond College last night held its trial debate to select a representative, who, together with one from the Philologist Society, will uphold in debate against two representatives of Wake Forest College, of North Carolina, the negative of the proposition: Resolved, That deportation is the best solution of the negro question in this country.

In the trial debate the same question was discussed that will be debated in the inter-collegiate discussion. Messrs. Coleman, Willis, Freeman, and Ross all upheld the affirmative view last night, while Messrs. Fitzgerald, Pollard and Thompson maintained the negative. Dis Whitsett, Hunter and Foushee, of the college faculty, were the judges.

The judges selected on the merits of the debate, Mr. Coleman Willis, of Lynchburg, to be one of the representatives of the college against Wake Forest's representatives.

The Philologist Society will hold its trial debate next Tuesday evening and will select the other man who will uphold the honor and prestige of the college in debate.

SCOURING YOUR SCALP.

Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales But It Won't Cure Dandruff.

If your hair is brittle and thinning you have dandruff. But the loose scales won't cure the scalp, because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a pestiferous little germ in burrowing its way to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality, causing falling hair and, in time, baldness. Now you can stop dandruff and prevent falling hair, not by the old-fashioned way of scrubbing the scalp, but by the new scientific discovery, Newbro's Herpicide. In fact no other hair preparation claims to kill the dandruff germ—all of them only clean the scalp. Newbro's Herpicide will do that, but scalp scales and itching will not be the trouble and this dandruff germ, sold by leading druggists. Send 10c stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ovens & Minor Drug Co. Special Agents.

Members Resign.

The really spicy part of the matter cropped out in another and rather peculiar manner. Dr. J. Powell Gayland, chairman of the committee, arose and declared that he favored the substitute with the exception of one thing. He bowed, and, if necessary, insisted, that he be not placed again upon the committee. He had never yet refused to perform any task set before him by the church, but he appealed to his brethren to accept his resignation.

The Rev. Richard Ferguson, another member of the committee, promptly followed the example of Dr. Gayland, and elected in his stead the Rev. J. W. Bledsoe, whom he nominated. On a divided house, the conference elected Dr. Bledsoe.

Here the factional lines were drawn close. One side, the usually understood to be against the Advocate, nominated the Rev. W. B. Beauchamp, of Richmond; the other side nominated the Rev. J. W. Shackford. The vote stood as follows: Beauchamp, 118; Shackford, 60. This settled the Advocate matter.

The Bible Society.

Considerable interest was aroused by the presentation of the report on the Bible course. There was a strong movement for the society and some speeches advocating larger contributions by the conference. Dr. Whitehead said the church should be ashamed of the small work it was doing to spread the gospel in heathen lands. The Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Richmond, also made a fine address in the interests of the work, and the report on the Bible course was adopted.

Negro Deaf and Blind.

The committee to which was referred the communication of W. C. Ritter in regard to a State institution for colored deaf and blind reported that the movement merited the endorsement of the conference.

Characters Passed.

Under the twentieth question a large number of ministers were passed in examination of character.

Scattering Business.

Early in the day greetings were received from the Baptist general association in session at Staunton. Suitable response was made.

Dr. J. J. Tigert, of the Publishing House, was present and made a short address.

The Rev. John C. Rosser was readmitted on the recommendation of Dr. Bennett, of Richmond.

Meet in Lynchburg.

During the afternoon and evening a number of interesting and important matters cropped out, including the announcement that the Conference will meet next year at Centenary, Lynchburg.

Most interesting of all, perhaps, was the decided news that the number of districts has been increased by the restoration of the old Farmville and division of the Norfolk and Eastern Shore.

There has been much discussion over this matter and it has recently been stated that the movement had been abandoned because the Bishop is in favor of large districts. At the meeting of the Board of Missions this afternoon, however, it leaked out that the two districts have already been restored, making eleven instead of nine. This necessitates the appointment of two new presiding elders. Dr. H. E. Johnson, of Richmond; Rev. L. B. Betty, of Richmond; Rev. T. Lipscomb, of Ashland, and Rev. R. F. Gayle, of Danville, are all mentioned for the eldership.

Nothing else positive can be obtained concerning the cabinet proceedings. No meeting of the body was held to-day. It was adopted by the board of presiding elders to complete and that Conference will adjourn on Tuesday.

Matters of Moment.

Matters of great moment were considered and acted upon at a meeting of the Board of Education held in the late afternoon. A resolution calling upon the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon to give the patronizing conferences some voice in the election of the trustees was adopted by a large majority.
